The Challenged Athletes Foundation was created on the belief that people of all abilities should have the opportunity to pursue a life full of physical activity and of sports. Be they recreational or in pursuit of a gold medal at the Paralympic Games, people with a physical disability are limited only by their access to funding. Eighty-nine cents of every dollar raised by CAF provides funding and programs that get challenged athletes into the game. Whether it's a $2,000 handcycle, helping underwrite a $15,000 running prosthetic or arranging enthusiastic encouragement from a mentor who has triumphed over a similar injury, CAF's mission is clear: give those with the desire to live active, competitive lifestyles every opportunity to compete in the sports they love.

Founded by 9x Badwater veteran Frank McKinney, the Caring House Project Foundation builds self-sufficient villages for the world's most desperately poor and homeless by providing housing, education, food, water, medical support and capitalism in Haiti, Honduras, Nicaragua, Indonesia, Africa and the United States. This year Caring House Project will build its newest self-sufficient village in Ravine á Couleuvre, a small Haitian enclave near the Town of L'Estere (pop 3,000). By the end of 2014 (21 villages and 11 years later), 10,000+ people will have new homes because of CHPF, and thousands more are alive because of its efforts.

Major Taylor Association was formed by residents of Worcester, Mass., who became intrigued with the story of the 1899 world champion bicycle racer from Worcester who overcame racial prejudice to become the first internationally acclaimed African-American sports star. The organization's mission is to memorialize Major Taylor with a statue on public land in Worcester, in recognition of his athletic achievements and strength of character—his sportsmanship, concern for those less fortunate, devotion to God, and personal struggle for equality. Further, the Major Taylor Association aims to create a living memorial to Taylor by conducting good works in his name and educating people about his life and legacy.
